MUSIC OF HOPE IS A CHARITY PROGRAM THAT PROVIDES EVERY CHILD WITH THE OPPORTUNITY TO RECEIVE A FREE EDUCATION THROUGH MUSIC.

"Music of Hope" is a unique programme in Serbia, developed in partnership with the famous El Sistema movement, which has been declared by UNESCO to be the best social inclusion programme in the world. The programme is implemented by the organisation "Music Art Project", which has been working since 2014 to achieve the goal of Social Inclusion and development of children through music. An innovative group music learning programme within children's and youth orchestras and choirs, Music of Hope, provides them with creative and organised time away from the streets, where they can explore their own potential through a rich musical experience in a safe and inspiring environment, and have the opportunity to learn and develop holistically, saving many children from Crime and social exclusion.

Orchestras and Choirs of Hope are a perfect model of an inclusive community based on mutual respect, togetherness, cooperation and tolerance, raising generations of creative people, who are confident in their abilities and in each other.

Feelings of personal worth, belonging, self-efficacy and hope are the most valuable things the programme provides. "Music of Hope gives its participants with the space to grow and the motivation to keep going. Throughout their lives, they keep moving forward, towards higher and higher goals.

By donating, you can help to ensure that:

- Bring music to more children and families
- Reduce the percentage of children dropping out of school
- Promote peer support and reduce peer violence
- We will introduce more joy, love and understanding into the classroom through ongoing teacher training
